

Lessons learned about project management

- If you're responsible to get something done, you're a project manager
- We try to do too much stuff
- Whatever you get done, do it right
- Just be decent
- You can put up with a lot from people who get things done
- Identify the A team
- Your process will never save you
- Just have fun