

Environmental and needs analysis rubric

Standard	High	Medium	Low
Data sources	The analysis is completely based on real observations, interviews, and research  (6 points)	The analysis is mostly based on real observations, interviews, and research, but there is some speculation  (3 points)	Little of the analysis is based on real observations, interviews, and research; it is mostly speculation  (1 point)
Complete	The analysis includes at least some information in all the components specified in the template  (6 points)	The analysis includes information in most of the components specified in the template  (3 points)	The analysis includes information in few of the components specified in the template  (1 point)
Clear	The reader can clearly understand the factors going into the analysis and how those led to the summaries and recommendations at the end  (6 points)	The reader can mostly understand the factors going into the analysis and how those led to the summaries and recommendations at the end  (3 points)	The reader can has significant difficulty understanding the factors going into the analysis and how those led to the summaries and recommendations at the end  (1 point)
Convincing	The conclusions are sound for the data gathered and alternative explanations or possibilities have been accounted for  (7 points)	The conclusions are mostly sound for the data gathered but there are some subtle alternative possibilities that have not been accounted for  (4 points)	The conclusions are not at all convincing. There are obvious alternative possibilities that have not been accounted for  (1 point)